

Digital Adventure Packet: Pirates Don't Say They're Sorry

Hi Davenport Junior Theatre Friend! We miss you at camps and in-person classes, but we still want you involved in theatre at home. We have created a Digital Adventure Packet to bring the fun of Davenport Junior Theatre to your home! This packet contains instructions for crafts you can do at home. Visit www.DavenportJuniorTheatre.org/learning-channel to watch tutorials for all of your crafts. We would love for you to act out the monologue, Pirates Don't Say They're Sorry. We invite you to record your performance using all the props and costumes that you have made. Post your video to social media using the #DJTAdventurePacket. We are looking forward to seeing your creations!

Pirate Hat

Materials

- Black construction paper
- ½ red construction paper
- White construction paper strips 1.7 x 11in
- Pirate hat pattern
- Glue, Tape, or Staples
- Scissors

Instructions

1. Cut along the solid black line on the pattern.
2. Trace the shape of the hat onto the one piece of the black construction paper.
3. Take the second piece of black construction paper and trace the back side of the template.
4. Cut out both sides of your pirate hat.
5. Tape, Glue, or Staple the two sides together. You should now have the front of your hat.
6. Now take your ½ sheet of red construction paper and fold it in half, hotdog style.
7. Cut along the dotted line on the pattern and trace it onto the red construction paper.
8. Cut the skull and crossbones out. Be sure not to cut along the fold.
9. Using glue or tape, attach the red skull and crossbones on to the black hat.
10. Using glue, staples, or tape, attach one end of the white construction paper strip to one bottom corner of the black construction paper hat. Bring the other end of the strip around to make a loop the size of your head, and attach it to the other bottom corner of the black construction paper hat.
11. If you used glue, wait for the glue to dry. Then put on your pirate hat and say "ARRRRRGH!"

Pirate Hook

Materials

- 1 Hook Pattern
- ½ Red Construction Paper
- ½ White construction paper
- Glue or staples
- Scissors

Instructions

1. Create a funnel shape with the half piece of red construction paper. Use glue or staples to secure the shape.
 2. Cut a hook shape out of white construction paper using the hook pattern.
 3. Attach the hook to the cone with glue or staples.
 4. Point your hook at someone and tell them to walk the plank!

Parrot

Materials

- Green Tissue Paper
- Small Square of Orange Construction Paper 1in x 1in
- Googly eyes
- Colorful feathers
- Glue
- Tape
- One toilet paper roll OR ½ paper towel roll
- Scissors

Instructions

1. Cover the outside of the toilet paper roll with the colored tissue paper. Tuck the ends of the tissue paper inside the toilet paper roll and secure it with tape or glue
2. Cut the orange construction paper into a small diamond shape, then fold the diamond in half and glue it to the front of the toilet paper roll. This is your parrot's beak.
3. Glue the two googly eyes above the beak.
4. Glue feathers to the sides of the toilet paper roll to make your parrot's wings.
5. Glue one extra feather to the top of your parrot to make a plume.
6. Give your parrot a name and put it on your shoulder!

DAVENPORT JUNIOR THEATRE

Hey Junior Theatre Friend! We're so glad you made it to the end of this Adventure Packet. We hope you had fun trying out all these crafts and practicing your acting skills! Davenport Junior Theatre has been very lonely without you, and we look forward to seeing you back on campus when we are able to once again open our doors. Until then though, we sincerely hope you had a good time completing your Adventure Packet. We had a ton of fun putting it together for you! Enjoy the rest of your summer, and hopefully we'll see you soon!

Sincerely,

Showtime Pal and the DJT Creative Team

Monologue: Pirates Don't Say They're Sorry

I don't know why I'm here in the principal's office. My mom said that I could wear what I want to school as long as it isn't underwear on my head, and pirates don't wear underwear on their head. The hook isn't even real, so it's not a weapon. Jake should be the one getting in trouble, because he's the one who pushed Crissey off the play structure. I didn't do it! I didn't. All I said was that she had to walk the plank. She should get in trouble too, because if she had walked the plank like I told her, nobody would've pushed her off. Mrs. K said that all the world's a stage and we all get to be the players, so I don't get why I can't be a pirate. You should be allowed to be what you want, and other people should have to listen. This isn't fair and I don't like it and I want my mom. I won't apologize. I won't! Pirates don't ever have to say they're sorry.
